Answering Service: Josh has the group rotation list for 2014. He requests the phone numbers of current phone service reps to enable him to remind groups of their commitments and to help ensure that phone service reps pick up the slack if their volunteers don't answer the phones.

H&I: Brian reports that the Sunday morning meeting at Good Samaritan has been taken as a group commitment. He will provide interested H&I reps with information on other meetings their groups can take on as regular commitments. He informs us that the Daytop meeting has been cancelled due to lack of attendance, but he provided the few regular attendees with information about other AA meetings, and left the door open to Daytop staff to contact us in the future. OLD BUSINESS

We need a new SENY Liaison to finish out the 2013-2014 term. Requires two years continuous sobriety. As stated in the Intergroup by-laws, "Liaison officer shall represent this Association at all General Service Assemblies, Mini-Assemblies, District Meetings and/or Committee meetings."

Kristina is working on a pamphlet (inspired by that of Area 44) describing Intergroup's purpose, and providing instructions on using the Intergroup website.

NEW BUSINESS

Motion passed to reimburse Secretary and Treasurer for necessary printing expenses when receipts are provided.

Motion to close at 8:39 pm; meeting was closed with the Serenity Prayer.
