Answering Service: (Deborah) Things are running smoothly. Twelve groups are currently in the rotation, and are being provided new calendars and reminders of their commitment dates. New guidelines are being distributed. We fielded 54 calls last month. Being able to pick up calls directly instead of having to "press 1" is working miracles — we only two missed calls all month.

Bridging the Gap: (Roy) Rockland County hasn't gotten any requests this month; he's going to Sunrise tomorrow to recruit Gappers.

Bookers: (Brian D) Bookers meeting went well tonight. A lot of new faces, including bookers from New Jersey. Everyone was able to get commitments.

Women's Corrections: (Debbie) Not a lot of women in the jail right now, status quo.

Hospitals and Institutions: (Kristin) We have five openings left for July. She hasn't heard of any recent no-shows. Meeting chairs are currently all covered.

Meeting List: (Kim N) She turned in money she has received (for revised meeting list bundles) to the Intergroup Treasurer.

Service: (Tom H) He will be setting up visits to group business meetings this month.

SENY Liaison: (Kerrie W) Saturday is the post-conference assembly. Victoria, Literature Chair, is putting through an order soon, let her know if you need anything. Fifth Edition of the Big Book was approved at the GSC. The 2027 Spiritual Breakfast will be on April 18, tickets will be $45. Services opportunities available, including chair. SENY disclosed that the Panel 73 SENY Treasurer misappropriated “around $8,900” during her rotation. SENY will be updating their financial guidelines to improve financial oversight controls. RCGS will also be reviewing their financial guidelines.

Share-A-Day: (Tom H) He is looking for volunteers, and provided his phone number, which Intergroup reps may share with members who would like more information.

Virtual: (George) Hour of Power is currently hosting 24 virtual meetings a week. They recently had a picnic at Rockland Lake.

Website: (Mary Kate) Let her know if you need anything; she will be updating for the website, especially the section for Young People in AA.
